

Senior Commission Mission Statement

The Madeira Senior Commission works to improve the quality of life of area seniors through activities, such as dissemination of information, understanding aging-in-place issues, and exploring housing alternatives. It also serves as a sounding board for Madeira seniors and as an advisory board to the Madeira City Council.

History

The Madeira Senior Commission is a City Council appointed board formed on May 27, 2008 as an advisory group to the Madeira City Council.
